

The environment

You might want to check the pronunciation of these words in a good dictionary. Some of them are a bit tricky.

- To be eco-guilty of something
- To leave the tap running /to leave the water running
- To waste water
- To have reusable shopping bags
- To be made of recyclable materials
- To buy organic food
- To throw in the bin everything
- To recycle glass bottles, paper, plastic containers
- To pollute the planet
- To install solar panels or wind turbines /'tɜː.bam/ to generate electricity
- Renewable energy (such as the wind and solar power)
- To recycle your waste
- To pay a fine
- Cars that use a lot of petrol should be banned
- Hybrid cars
- Electric cars
- Electronic books
- Paper books will not be produced to save trees from being cut down
- Fresh water will be running out
- Desalination plants to get water from the sea
- Temperatures will have risen

- To have extreme weather
- To be environmentally friendly
- The burning of fossil fuels creates gases such as carbon dioxide in the atmosphere
- We are using up natural resources such as coal and oil
- We throw away a lot of packaging (the paper, plastic, card... that covers goods)
- Deforestation
- Endangered species
- Most scientists consider rising temperatures evidence of global warming
- Climate change
- To be green

Phrasal verbs

- To end up:
A lot of chemicals end up in our rivers
- To run out of
What will we do when we run out of oil?
- To throw away
Instead of throwing away glass and paper, we should recycle these materials.